Crisis Leadership Symposium

April 7-8, 2016

Camp Atterbury Conference Center

Join public safety experts from the Indiana University School of Public and Environmental Affairs (SPEA) for a two-day workshop designed to empower leaders to effectively manage crises in their organization and community.

Engage and network with experienced media, law enforcement and public safety professionals, including Indianapolis Chief of Police Troy Riggs; former member of the Indiana State Police and SPEA Lecturer Jim White; investigative reporter Russ McQuaid and Fox 59 Senior Planning Manager Ruthanne Gordon; terrorism expert Peter Beering; and Steve Broniarczyk from the Indiana Department of Homeland Security. During this symposium you'll learn best practice approaches to crisis mitigation, prevention, response, recovery, and more.

Who should attend?

Mayors, public safety officials and other city officials; hospital and school administrators; business leaders.

Cost: $325

Registration will open in early March. Space is limited, so reserve your spot by visiting go.iupui.edu/crisisleadership.
