

Learn how to avoid lethal drug exposure to fentanyl, fentanyl analogs, carfentanil, counterfeit pharmaceuticals & other dangerous substances in this FREE two-hour webinar presented by St. Petersburg College's Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training (MCTFT) program in partnership with the Florida National Guard.

Geared toward first responder law enforcement, undercover narcotic, correctional, probation, parole, regulatory, and supervisory personnel, this presentation, focusing on awareness and preventative safety considerations, will cover the dangers of synthetic opioids, drug potency, counterfeit pills, counterfeit pill press devices, drug distribution methods, narcotic costs vs. profits, supply vs. demand factors, fentanyl analogs and similar synthetic substances, and much more.

Class size is limited, so register early!

Thursday, August 8, 2024
2 p.m. - 4 p.m. EDT

Instruction provided by Dan Zsido, Retired Lieutenant from the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office, who commanded the Narcotics Division comprised of the Pinellas Initiative with the Central Florida High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas (CFHIDTA), Strategic Long Term & Street Level Narcotics Investigations, Drug Interdiction Investigations, Pharmaceutical Drug Diversion Investigations and Technical Support Operations.

**NO COST****

Tuition Free through the Florida National Guard's MCTFT program

Register Here: https://spcollege.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_chpPpozYRCmNYz9ag1GWoA

Location: Webinar link to be provided before event

Point of Contact: Laura Heisler: heisler.laura@spcollege.edu; (727) 341-4437