

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Sarah Bump Chief Financial Officer

Sarah Bump was named INDOT Chief Financial Officer in February 2025.

Prior to her promotion to Chief Financial Officer, Sarah served as the Senior Director of Finance where she and her team were responsible for long-range revenue forecasting, econometric modeling of commodity price impacts, and contract auditing.

Sarah joined INDOT in 2017 when she was hired to manage the Damage to State Property program and support district finance activities. She later transitioned to the Controller role, where she directed Accounting and Financial Reporting, Procurement, Accounts Payable, Damage to State Property, and Accounts Receivable for the agency.

Prior to joining INDOT, Sarah worked 20 years in the private sector, leading global finance teams with Ingram Micro, Closure Systems International, and Ingersoll Rand. During that time, she established and managed shared services teams, developed financial risk and mitigation plans, and implemented financial reporting standards in 40+ locations around the world.

Sarah holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Evansville. She is an active Certified Government Financial Manager and is a member of AGA (formerly the Association of Government Accountants)..

Sarah and her husband, Joel, live in Indianapolis. In her spare time, Sarah enjoys volunteer work, hiking, and home improvement projects.
