Township Line Road bridge over I-465 set to reopen ahead of schedule

MARION COUNTY, Ind. — The Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) announces the Township Line Road bridge over I-465 is set to reopen on or after Tuesday, February 10, ahead of the originally planned reopening in the spring.

The bridge, which crosses over I-465 near the Marion/Hamilton county line, closed in the summer of 2025 for a bridge replacement project. While it is set to reopen this week, final pavement markings and asphalt work still needs to be completed. The bridge is expected to close for approximately one week in the spring for that final work.

Additionally, lane closures are planned on I-465 next week under the bridge for final work on the underneath side. Weather permitting, the following nightly lane closures are scheduled from U.S. 421 (Michigan Road) to Ditch Road between the hours of 10 p.m. and 5 a.m.:

- Monday, February 16, and Tuesday, February 17
 - Two right lanes closed on I-465 westbound
- Wednesday, February 18, and Thursday, February 19
 - Two left lanes closed on I-465 westbound
- Friday, February 20, and Saturday, February 21
 - Two left lanes closed on I-465 eastbound
- Monday, February 23, and Tuesday, February 24
 - Two right lanes closed on I-465 eastbound

INDOT reminds drivers to slow down, avoid distractions, and use extra caution while traveling in and around work zones. All work is weather-dependent, and schedules are subject to change.
