Citizens have law enforcement to thank for safety, stability of our communities

INDIANAPOLIS (July 8, 2016) – In response to the Thursday night murder of five police officers and wounding of seven in Dallas, TX, the Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council Executive Director David Powell said, “The U.S. legal system is founded upon the presumption of innocence until guilt is proven. Justice and fairness are grounded in the rule of law. The men and women who serve as police officers are essential to public safety and the overall stability of our communities, commerce and government. They deserve our heartfelt gratitude, support and trust. As Prosecutors we stand with you.”
