FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - December 11, 2015

Jason M. Mount Elected President of Association of Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys, Inc.

The Association of Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys, Inc. elected Scott County Prosecutor Jason M. Mount as president during the recent winter conference of Indiana prosecuting attorneys, Dec. 7-9 in Indianapolis. He succeeds Dearborn/Ohio Prosecuting Attorney F. Aaron Negangard.

"Serving on the Board of Directors of the Association for the past 5 years has been one of the most professionally rewarding things I've had the good fortune to do as a Prosecutor," said Mount. "I very much look forward to continuing to work together with my fellow colleagues, and for the citizens of the State of Indiana."

The Association is a not-for-profit organization that serves to further law enforcement and to assist prosecutors in fulfilling their duties in the most efficient and professional manner.

Prosecutor Mount is a lifelong resident of Scott County where he has served as prosecuting attorney for the 6th judicial circuit since being appointed in 2004. He has subsequently been re-elected three times. A 1994 graduate of Ball State University, he obtained his J.D. from the Indiana University McKinney School of Law in 1999. Mount has served as the Chairman for the IPAC Public Relations Committee since its formation in 2012. He resides in Finley Township with his two sons, two daughters and his wife, Shannon, who is presently pursuing a Doctorate of Social Work from the University of Louisville.
