Dear Ms. Doe:

The Court has set the above-noted case for pre-trial conference on x [final_pretrial_conference_date]. A pre-trial conference is a meeting between the prosecutor and the defense attorney, not a court hearing. You do not need to attend this conference.

To date, we have not received your Victim Impact statement and Restitution form. Your input will be most helpful in bringing this case to a fair and just closure.

If you anticipate any change in your address or phone number, it is of the utmost importance that you contact our office. Our goal is to keep you informed and notify you when necessary. If you have any questions or concerns please contact Victim Services at 812-358-6149

Dear Ms. Doe:

This letter is to inform you that the defendant has an upcoming hearing date.

_____ Plea terms have been offered to the defendant and his attorney.

_____ A plea hearing date is set.

_____ A sentencing date is set.

_____ A plea and sentencing hearing date is set.

Date/Time: _____

It is always a good idea to call a day before the above scheduled hearing to determine if it has been continued. A sentencing hearing is your opportunity, as a victim in this case, to address the court. Your presence at the sentencing hearing is not required, unless you are subpoenaed. However, you are welcome to attend. If there are matters that you believe that the Judge should know before pronouncing sentence on the defendant, please contact me and I will arrange for you to testify at the hearing. The Prosecutor's Office would like to thank you for your help and cooperation in the prosecution of this case. If you have any questions or concerns please contact Victim Services at 812-358-6149.

Re: State of Indiana vs. Joe Bad Guy
36C01-1410-F6-131

Dear Ms. Doe:

We are writing you because you are the victim in this case. The defendant has been charged with the following crimes: Count 1: Intimidation, a Level 6 Felony; Count 2: Domestic Battery, a Class A Misdemeanor; Count 3: Disorderly Conduct, a Class B Misdemeanor.

This letter is to inform you that the judge has ordered the Defendant to not have any contact with you while this criminal case is pending. This means the Defendant is not supposed to contact you by phone, text, letter, computer, social media, in-person or through a third party.

If the Defendant does contact you, he/she has violated the conditions of bond set by the judge. Please notify the Prosecutor's Office immediately and report the contact to your local law enforcement agency. The assigned deputy prosecuting attorney can file a motion to revoke the Defendant's bond based on his/her violation of the judge's order.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact Victim Services at 812-358-6149. Thank you.
