

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney – Trial Division

For those committed to a career in criminal prosecution, the Elkhart County Prosecuting Attorney, Vicki Elaine Becker, is seeking interested applicants for an open position. The preferred candidate is self-motivated to achieve professional improvement, and confident in an ability to surpass exceptionally high expectations for performance and leadership in the area of criminal justice. Applicants with criminal trial experience will be given preference; however, those with no criminal prosecution experience will be considered. The yearly salary for this position will be commensurate with experience. The salary range starting January 1, 2026 is $88,343.00 to $152,314.00. This is a full-time position with Elkhart County benefits. Letters of interest and resumes may be submitted to Joel V. Williams, Chief Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, Elkhart County Prosecutor's Office, 301 South Main Street, Suite 100, Elkhart, Indiana 46516, or via e-mail at jwilliams@elkhartpa.com.