Bond on a new arrest shall not be set for any person who is wanted on a criminal warrant in another matter in this or any other jurisdiction until Initial Hearing. All bonds for offenses on this schedule may be posted at 10% cash deposit for the amount of the highest single charge alleged. Bond in all other offenses will be set at the time of finding of Probable Cause and/or at the Initial Hearing in Court.

In cases concerning crimes of violence when bond is set and posted, the Jailer shall notify the alleged victim prior to release as required by the Crime Victim Notification Statute (I.C. 35-33-12 et.seq.). The arresting agency shall supply victim contact information to the Jail Officer on duty for the notification to be made. A person arrested for a crime of Domestic Violence (as described in I.C. 35-41-1-6.3) shall not be released until at least 8 hours after the time of arrest.

Any person charged with an alcohol-related offense (*) and/or exhibiting signs of alcohol intoxication shall not be released until a sufficient time has elapsed to allow that person's blood alcohol level to decrease to below 0.05% (see I.C. 35-33-1-6).

ANY Defendant posting bond prior to an Initial Hearing shall be and hereby is ORDERED to appear in open court at 9:00 AM on the court's next business day.

SO ORDERED THIS 28th DAY OF FEBRUARY, 2017

 Jason M. Mount, Judge
