

Indiana State Department of Agriculture (ISDA)
INDIANA LIVESTOCK MARKET DEVELOPMENT GRANT PROGRAM

Purpose

The Indiana State Department of Agriculture's (ISDA) vision is to make Indiana a world leader in innovation and commercialization of food, fuel and fiber production. ISDA works to promote and nurture the economic development of the agricultural sector, especially the livestock industry. The livestock sector is also the largest consumer for Indiana's corn and soybean products.

ISDA is accepting project proposals for value-added feasibility studies, research projects, market development, or other projects that encourage the development of business and industry related to livestock production, processing and distribution.

Eligibility

Non-profit organizations, commissions, and associations with 501(c) status are eligible to apply for this grant. These entities must be working to develop markets for the livestock industry in Indiana. Livestock should include the following:

- (1) Beef cattle, dairy cattle, and other animals of the bovine species
- (2) Swine and other animals of the porcine species
- (3) Sheep and other members of the ovine species
- (4) Horses, mules, burros, asses, and other animals of the equine species
- (5) Goats and other members of the caprine species
- (6) Poultry and other birds of the avian species
- (7) Ostriches, rhea, emus, and other members of the ratite species
- (8) Camels, llamas, and other members of the camelid species
- (9) Farm raised deer, elk, moose, and other members of the cervidae species
- (10) Bison
- (11) Aquatic animals that are the subject of aquaculture
- (12) Rabbits

Eligible Activities

The grant will reimburse up to 50 percent of activities and projects for the development of business and industry related to livestock production, processing and distribution. This includes feasibility studies, research projects, market development or other projects related to the livestock industry in Indiana.

Timeline

October 1, 2016: Applications open
December 1, 2016: Grant applications are due to ISDA
February 1, 2017: Announcement of grant recipients
February 2018: Completion of the grant program

50% of the award will be provided once a fully signed grant agreement is returned to the recipient and the remaining 50% will be distributed after ISDA receives the final report within 30 day after the completion of the project/event.

Project Selection Process

Applications will be reviewed by an internal committee established by ISDA.

Criteria for Selection

- Project has clear identifiable goals and demonstrates tangible benefits for the livestock industry segment and for Indiana's overall food and agriculture economy.
- Project has clear criteria by which to evaluate the success of the project. Goals and expected outcomes are verifiable, measurable and realistic for the scope of the project.
- Project has a high probability of achieving its goals.
- Project has strong industry support.
- Project will benefit many companies in the industry sector and industry impact goes beyond the county level.
- ISDA will be publicized or recognized for providing funds to the project.
- Budget is complete and detailed.
- Only one grant application per organization will be considered.
- Capital expenses such as buildings, vehicles, livestock pens, large equipment, etc. are not permissible in grant request.

Application Process

Applications (please see below for application form) must be submitted via e-mail. A detailed budget of the event/project must be attached and include all anticipated expenses for the event/project. If this event/project was held previously, please attach the most recent final expense report. All portions of the application must be completed.

Please note that no applications will be accepted after the December 1 deadline. If you do not receive an email stating that your application has been received before the deadline, it is the applicant's responsibility to follow up to ensure all materials were submitted. Applications submitted without a budget will be considered incomplete and will not be considered.
