The First Critical Hour in Trauma Management

The ATLS® Course
for Physicians Student Provider Course

sponsored by:

Parkview Physicians
Group – Critical Care
&
Parkview Regional Medical Center

February 28 and March 1, 2015

Fort Wayne, Indiana

OBJECTIVES

The ATLS® Course is designed to teach a standardized approach to trauma patient assessment and life-saving skills to all physicians who care for trauma patients whether infrequently or on a daily basis. The Trauma Division of the ACS will insure that these diagnostic, assessment, and management skills are taught by qualified ATLS® instructors using a standardized course distributed throughout the United States. The ATLS® National and Regional faculty (State Committee of Trauma Chairmen) are charged with maintaining the high quality of the ATLS® Course Instructors and insuring that all ATLS® Courses are conducted in accordance with the ACS Committee on Trauma.

This two day ATLS® program is a provider course, which incorporates the ATLS® Course material emphasizing delivery of appropriate treatment for the acutely traumatized patient.

ACCREDITATION

The ATLS® Course is presented by the American College of Surgeons in cooperation with Indiana Trauma Surgeons, Inc., and Parkview Hospital Randallia. "As an organization accredited for continuing medical education by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, the American College of Surgeons designates this continuing medical activity as meeting the criteria for 19 credit hours in Category I."

"Approved by ACEP for 19 hours of ACEP category I credits."
