

Common Adverse Reactions to Drug Treatment

Caused By	Adverse Reaction	Signs and Symptoms
Any drug	Allergy	Skin rash
Ethambutol	Eye damage	Blurred or changed vision Changed color vision
Isoniazid, Pyrazinamide, or Rifampin	Hepatitis	Abdominal pain Abnormal liver function test results Fatigue Lack of appetite Nausea Vomiting Yellowish skin or eyes Dark urine
Isoniazid	Peripheral neuropathy	Tingling sensation in hands and feet
Pyrazinamide	Gastrointestinal intolerance Arthralgia Arthritis	Upset stomach, vomiting, lack of appetite Joint aches Gout (rare)
Streptomycin	Ear damage Kidney damage	Balance problems Hearing loss Ringing in the ears Abnormal kidney function test results
Rifamycins •Rifabutin •Rifapentine •Rifampin	Thrombocytopenia Gastrointestinal intolerance Drug interactions	Easy bruising Slow blood clotting Upset stomach Interferes with certain medications, such as birth control pills, birth control implants, and methadone treatment

Source: CDC