FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - DOWNERS GROVE, Ill. - November 10, 2012 - Jimmy Dean® is voluntarily recalling a partial production run of the brand's butcher wrapped Food service product, Jimmy Dean French Toast & Sausage Sandwich with the code "12292P1" on the back label under the products ingredient statement, as a precautionary measure because the product may contain the undeclared allergens egg and soy, not listed on the label. This recall is due to a labeling error, in which the wrong ingredient statement may have been applied to a small number of sandwiches. The recall affects 1,110 pounds of product with the code 12292P1 on the back panel.

People who are allergic to egg or soy could have a serious or life-threatening reaction if they consume this product. For consumers who are not allergic to egg or soy, there is no safety issue with the product.

The following states are included in this recall: Iowa, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The item included in the voluntary recall is part of a partial production run only for Jimmy Dean French Toast & Sausage Sandwich with the UPC CODE 5450051434 and the code 12292P1 on the back of the packaging.

No other Jimmy Dean branded products, including Jimmy Dean Delights French Toast Gridders sold at traditional grocery chains, are affected by this voluntary recall and the company has received no reports of illnesses associated with this product.

Consumers may return affected product to the store where it was purchased for a full refund. Consumers who may have questions or concerns should call the special toll-free consumer line at 1.888.914.1247. The consumer line is available from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Central Time Saturday and Sunday, and 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. CST Monday - Friday.
