

Nursing Grand Rounds.

Empowering Practice Through Education

Trauma: Pediatric End-of-Life Care

Presented By:

Expert Panel from IU Health Riley Hospital for Children:

Dawn Daniels, PhD, RN, PHCNS-BC, Trauma Program Manager

Lauren Canady, MSW, LCSW, Clinical Manager for Social Work

Abigail Rainey, BS, CCLS, Child Life Specialist

Elizabeth Boring, MSW, LSW, Coordinator Bereavement Services

Amy Beery, MDiv, Resident Chaplain

Amy Haskamp, MSN, RN, PCNS-BC, CPON, Pediatric Palliative Care

Tuesday, November 11, 2014

8 am - 9 am

11 am - 12 pm

IU Health Ball Memorial Hospital
Auditorium

FREE OF CHARGE

No registration required.

Nurses attending will receive 1.0 contact hour.

This activity has been submitted to the Ohio Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. The Ohio Nurses Association (OBN-001-91) is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Objectives:

- Discuss important considerations for when a pediatric patient abruptly dies from injury/suicide/homicide
- Describe the aspects of care for a dying pediatric patient and family needs
- Identify special circumstances that occur with the death of a child

Trauma Education Part II.

Ball Memorial Hospital

© 2014 Indiana University Health
10/14/14

Discover the strength at iuhealth.org/ball-memorial

Follow us on twitter at @IUHealthBall
Like us on Facebook.com/IUHealthBall