

BILL HAAS

Bill Haas is Senior Corporate Counsel for T-Mobile. Bill joined T-Mobile in April 2012 and is responsible for state regulatory matters in several Midwestern and central Southern states. Bill joined T-Mobile after spending 16+ years working for wireline competitive entities, starting with McLeodUSA in 1995 and through several acquisitions, concluding with the Windstream acquisition of PAETEC in December 2011.

Haas joined the legal department of McLeodUSA in December 1995 after serving for 13 years as a staff attorney initially with the Iowa Utilities Board and then with the Iowa Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Advocate as a litigation attorney handling electric, gas and telecommunications contested case proceedings. Haas earned Bachelor of Science degrees in Economics and Psychology from Iowa State University and a Juris Doctor with Honors from Drake University Law School.