Created by a Vet, Combat Coffee is a casual environment in which Veterans can connect through coffee, conversation, and camaraderie.

RENSSELAER EVENTS: CHILDRENS/ TEENS

March 1-14-Free Trees Day

We're excited to partner once again with Neighborhood Forest to help grow a love of nature—one tree at a time! Through this program, kids and teens can receive a free tree to plant and care for at home, turning a small sapling into a lasting connection with the environment and their community.

Sign-up online or at the library to take part in this free program. The deadline to register is March 14. It's a simple way to celebrate stewardship, patience, and growth—because great things really do start small.

March 2-Read Across America Day

10 am, Ages 0-5

On Read Across America Day, we're taking a page straight out of Dr. Seuss's world, where words bounce, stories wiggle, and imagination runs wild. Join us at the Rensselaer Library for a playful storytime filled with beloved Seuss tales full of rhyme, nonsense, and just the right amount of mischief. After the stories, little hands can get busy with a simple, Seuss-inspired craft, because stories don't have to end when the book closes.

Tuesdays, March 3, 10, & 17-All Ages Family Storytime

10 am, Ages 0-5 with caregivers. Registration required. Join us for stories, activities, and crafts. Programs will be tailored to those who come. Caregivers with multiple children of different ages are encouraged to attend.

Tuesdays, March 3-April 28-Pre-Teen Book Club

4-5:15 pm, Ages 8-12. Registration required. Step through the wardrobe and into Narnia! Our Pre-Teen Book Club (ages 8-12) is back for its next exciting chapter, diving into The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe over nine weeks of reading, discussion, and discovery. This beloved classic offers plenty to talk about—brave choices, magical creatures, epic battles, and the meaning of loyalty and courage.

March 14-Train Day

10 am-3 pm, All ages. Drop in any time!

For one day only, the library will transform into a world of tracks, towns, and tiny marvels! Train Day returns, filling both library meeting rooms and other open spaces with operating model train layouts in multiple gauges, offering something fascinating to see at every turn.

From sweeping curves to intricate details, these setups showcase the creativity, engineering, and storytelling that make model railroading so captivating. Whether you're a longtime train enthusiast or simply curious, this drop-in event invites you to wander, watch the trains roll, and enjoy a rare, full-scale takeover of the library by miniature railroads, and meet some of the engineers who have made these marvels a relaxing hobby.

RENSSELAER EVENTS: CHILDRENS/ TEENS

March 14-Pi Day

1:59 pm, All ages.

Join us for Pi Day 2026 (3.14 · 1:59 · '26) as we honor the never-ending number that keeps circles... well, going around. We'll mark the moment with homemade mini fruit pies and π keychains, available in the Teen Room while supplies last.

March 30-Last Monday Storytime

6 pm, Ages 0-5. Registration required.

Families with little ones who cannot attend a morning story time are invited to join us for stories, snacks, activities, and crafts. Programs will be tailored to those who come. Caregivers with multiple children of different ages are encouraged to attend.

We will be continuing our reading of "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" by C. S. Lewis.

April 3-Easter Ceramics Painting

2 pm, All ages. Registration required.

This Good Friday, the library invites you to a special ceramic painting program made possible through the generosity of a longtime patron who has lovingly donated a collection of ceramic figures they are no longer able to paint. These pieces—many with Easter and faith-based themes—carry both creative potential and a quiet story of sharing talents forward. Participants are welcome to select a piece and bring it to life with color, reflection, and care.

Tuesdays, April 7, 14, & 21-All Ages Family Storytime

10 am, Ages 0-5 with care givers. Registration required.

Join us for stories, activities, and crafts. Programs will be tailored to those who come. Caregivers with multiple children of different ages are encouraged to attend.

April 27-Last Monday Storytime

6 pm, Ages 0-5 with caregiver. Registration required.

Families with little ones who cannot attend a morning story time are invited to join us for stories, snacks, activities, and crafts. Programs will be tailored to those who come. Caregivers with multiple children of different ages are encouraged to attend.

April 23-Recycled Materials Craft

4 pm, Ages 8+. Registration required.

Get creative with yesterday's technology! In this hands-on program, we'll transform recycled computer parts—keys, wires, circuit boards, and more—into jewelry and one-of-a-kind crafts. What once powered screens and keyboards gets a second life as art, proving that creativity doesn't need brand-new materials.

This program blends crafting, curiosity, and sustainability, inviting participants to look at technology in a whole new way. Come tinker, design, and discover the unexpected beauty hidden inside old computers.

April 27-Homeschoolers of Jasper County Science Fair

Time TBA, Grades K-12

By special arrangement, the Rensselaer Library will be hosting a science fair for students from the Homeschoolers of Jasper County. Grades 6-12 will be displaying their projects on April 27 and grades K-5 will follow the next week on May 4. Visitors are welcome to walk through the exhibits, ask questions, and cheer on these young thinkers as they present their work. It's a celebration of inquiry, problem-solving, and the joy of learning—proof that science thrives wherever curiosity is encouraged.
