Indiana Supreme Court

CASE NUMBER: 94S00-1607-MS-363

ORDER CREATING INDIANA TAX COURT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

On May 13, 2015, this Court by Order created an Ad Hoc Tax Court Advisory Task Force (Task Force) to examine the caseload, resources, staffing, performance and operations of the Indiana Tax Court, including review and analysis of the methods and procedures for case disposition. The Order integrated the legislative mandate in Senate Enrolled Act 423 calling for the Indiana Judicial Center to review the workload and backlog of cases in the Indiana Tax Court. The Task Force submitted its findings and recommendations on May 1, 2016, which included the formation of a Tax Court Advisory Committee "to advise and assist the Tax Court from time to time on a variety of matters, including court administration, case management, performance standards, data collection and review, to assist the Tax Court in moving cases to resolution in a more efficient and timely fashion."

THEREFORE, a Tax Court Advisory Committee is hereby formed to work with, advise, assist, and assess progress by the Indiana Tax Court in implementing the reforms and improvements recommended by the Task Force, and to provide periodic written progress reports to this Court.

The following persons are appointed to the Advisory Committee:

1. Senior Judge Brent E. Dickson
2. Judge Robert R. Altice, Indiana Court of Appeals
3. Judge Thomas C. Perrone, Cass Superior Court #1
4. Mary G. Willis, Chief Administrative Officer, Designee, Indiana Supreme Court
5. James F. Maguire, Staff Attorney, Indiana Supreme Court

Senior Judge Brent Dickson will serve as the Chair.

DONE at Indianapolis, Indiana, on 7/7/2016.

Loretta H. Rush
Chief Justice of Indiana

All Justices concur.
