

Greg Wilson

Intergovernmental Affairs Director

Indiana Lt. Governor Eric Holcomb

---

Greg Wilson is the Intergovernmental Affairs Director for Indiana Lt. Governor Eric Holcomb. In this role, Greg acts as the Lieutenant Governor's point of connection with local, state, and federal government officials.

Greg previously served as a cabinet member for Indianapolis Mayor Gregory A. Ballard, and was responsible for raising and maintaining awareness of diversity efforts to better serve the needs of the citizens of Indianapolis. Greg also worked for the City of Indianapolis in the Department of Public Works.

In 2006 Greg co-founded a nonprofit, which is an equestrian program for inter-city youth. It was aimed to teach life skills, character building, and horseback riding and by exposing the youth to horses and animal-related careers that are available. Greg served as Board Chairman for five years.

Greg served eight years in the United States Army. He says active within the Indianapolis community as the Chairman of the Indiana Black Expo, board member of Visit Indy, and through work with the 10 Point Coalition which focuses its efforts on reducing violence in inner-city neighborhoods.