LettersAboutLiterature

Have you read a book that changed your life?

Letters About Literature is a statewide contest where students in grades 4-12 write a letter to an author, living or deceased, whose one work has made a difference in how they see themselves or how they see the world. Students may enter through their schools or individually.

Indiana winners get recognized annually with free books, cash prizes, certificates, and more. Our top 100 winners are compiled into the annual Letters About Literature anthology!

ATTENTION STUDENTS!

Write about it, win prizes, get published!
