

This Week in Indiana History:

May 1st, 1813

Corydon Becomes Capitol of Indiana Territory

On May 1st, 1813, Corydon became the second capitol of the Indiana Territory. Originally designated as Vincennes, the capitol moved to this new city in order to be more uniform with the recent demographic shifts of the area.

