Re: 2016 Capacity Building Courses – Update to RED 16-22

Indiana thrives when its neighborhoods, cities, towns and regions are strong. Building capacity around a community's existing leadership and assets is the foundation for a sustainable and healthy community. The Office of Community and Rural Affairs (OCRA), Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority (IHCDA), and High Performance Government Network (HPGN) have collaborated to create a curriculum of courses to help build capacity in Indiana's hometowns.

The courses are designed for all Indiana community leaders, which includes but is not limited to: grant administrators, economic development offices, community foundations, etc. If you want to help your community grow and thrive in the 21st century, then these educational opportunities are for you. The courses will provide community development basics, tools, case studies and best practices to enhance the skills of local leadership. For more information, please contact Carmen Lethig at clethig@ihcda.in.gov or visit <http://www.in.gov/ocra/2784.htm>
