It is the Office of Community and Rural Affairs' (OCRA) policy to promote and enhance the resilience of rural communities. Applicants who submit a Community Resilience Vision Plan (CRVP) by the announced pre-approval deadline are eligible to receive up to 25 bonus points towards their CDBG application. Each Community Resilience Visions Plan must be tailored to the individual community applying and must not exceed 3 pages in length. Bonus points request must be unique to each quarter or round in which a community is applying for. Previous submissions must be updated with accurate dates, signatures and current information to be considered for these points. Below is the required submission process and the minimum standards a CRVP must satisfy for review.

In order to receive the Bonus Points, submission of the CRVP is required to access the CRI points up to 25 points subject to review by the CDBG Program Manager.

Relevant Definitions

- Community Resilience Vision Plan (CRVP): A narrative document outlining how the proposed project will improve CRI metrics over the next five years. This is worth up to 5 points.
- Community Resilience Index (CRI): An annual score calculated by Stats Indiana designed to be more forward looking by focusing on a community's capacity to withstand, adapt to, and recover from economic transitions, population shifts, or disasters <https://www.stats.indiana.edu/topic/cdbg.asp>.
- Points Awarded (PA): Points are assigned to Indiana communities according to their results on the Community Resilience Score Index, using the established formula: Slope * Community Resilience Score - Intercept. This is worth up to 20 points.
- Resilience Bonus Points (RBP): These are the addition of the points received from the submitted Community Resilience Vision Plan and the Points awarded. This is worth up to 25 points.
- Chief Elected Official (CEO): The individual elected and legally empowered to apply for and execute CDBG grants on behalf of the community.

A. Process

- 1) The CEO must schedule a meeting with their respective Community Liaison. This meeting must be scheduled at any time prior to the announced pre-approval deadline.
- 2) The CEO, with assistance from the Certified Grant Administrator, must develop and submit the CRVP to the CDBG Program Manager at cdbg@ocra.in.gov by the announced pre-approval deadline.
- 3) OCRA verifies receipt and completeness of the CRVP.
- 4) OCRA calculates bonus points
 - a. Applies the predefined formula to the community's current CRI score
- 5) OCRA notifies each applicant of the resilience bonus points awarded.
 - a. Points are added to the application's total score during the application review process.

B. Scheduling a Meeting With an OCRA Community Liaisons

- 1) Identify the respective Community Liaison.
- 2) Draft a meeting request email. This meeting can be in person or virtual
