

Andrea E. Rahman
Indianapolis, Indiana

- Attorney
- Administrative Law Judge, Office of Administrative Law Proceedings

Travel: Statewide; Virtual

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Administrative Law
- Environmental Law
- Civil Rights
- Employment Law
- Business Law

Additional Information:

Andrea Rahman currently serves as an Administrative Law Judge with the Indiana Office of Administrative Law Proceedings (OALP) and is a registered mediator. Prior to her job at OALP, Andrea worked as a Deputy Attorney General in the Office of the Indiana Attorney General (OAG). Andrea worked in the Civil Appeals Section of the OAG for three years and then worked in the Administrative and Regulatory Enforcement Litigation Division for over two years. Andrea also practiced probate litigation and business transactional work for a small, Indianapolis law firm, prior to joining OALP. Andrea earned a B.A. in English from Indiana Wesleyan University and earned her law degree from Indiana University McKinney School of Law.