Duke Energy Rate Case: IURC Hearing Scheduled for Tuesday in Terre Haute Written Public Comments Invited Through July 5

Duke Energy customers are invited to comment on the utility's pending rate request.

- The Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission (IURC) will hold a public field hearing on June 4, 2024, at Ivy Tech Community College in the Oakley Auditorium (8000 S. Education Drive, Terre Haute) at 6:00 pm.
  - This is the first of three scheduled public field hearings in the case this month. Additional hearings are scheduled for June 20, 2024, in Bloomington and June 27, 2024, in Fishers.
- The Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor (OUCC) is inviting written public comments on Duke Energy's request through July 5, 2024.

The OUCC – the state agency representing consumer interests in cases before the IURC – is using its technical and legal resources to review the utility's proposal. Formal testimony from the OUCC is due July 11, 2024.

For more information, please see the OUCC's May 21, 2024 news release.

(IURC Cause No. 46038)

The Indiana Office of Utility Consumer Counselor (OUCC) represents Indiana consumer interests before state and federal bodies that regulate utilities. As a state agency, the OUCC's mission is to represent all Indiana consumers to ensure quality, reliable utility services at the most reasonable prices possible through dedicated advocacy, consumer education, and creative problem solving.
