During 2023 and 2024 he had multiple criminal charges including resisting arrest, public nudity, theft, battery, and a few miscellaneous criminal charges. He spent a total of a year to a year in half in jail. He was never placed on probation. He has not been working and would like to return back to working as a PT. His current living situation now is residing in a shelter and working on getting a job. He was terminated from Hancock Health Center. He says it was a misunderstanding.
