

The Collaborative Connection

Empowering and leading Indiana grants management professionals.

What is the Indiana Grants Management Collaborative?

The Indiana Grants Management Collaborative is a forum for grants management professionals in Indiana to network, exchange ideas, share best practices, and improve the management of state and federal grants across the state.

When will the Collaborative meet?

The Indiana Grants Management Collaborative will meet quarterly starting in April of 2025. Subcommittees will meet on a regular basis, as desired by each subcommittee.

Who can be a member of the Collaborative?

Collaborative membership will be open to grants management professionals from across Indiana, including program, finance, and grants staff.

Please join us April 3, 2025 to learn more!

We are excited to invite you to be a part of the Indiana Grants Management Collaborative! The Collaborative is a new organization, created by and for Indiana's grants management professionals. Our goal is to build an environment where we learn from one another, we share best practices, and we equip each other for success.

Our meeting on April 3, 2025 will be on Teams from 2:00-3:00pm Eastern. Please plan to access the Teams meeting here:
