Aerospace and Aviation

Helping Indiana become the Midwest Hub for International Flight and the national center for aviation maintenance and flight

With companies such as American Airlines reporting 75% of their pilots retiring in the next 15 years, airlines around the world will need to recruit over 635,000 pilots and close to 754,000 new aircraft technicians over the next two decades.

- 100% job placement of VU Aviation Maintenance graduates
- The only FedEx co-op program in the country

Career and Technical Early College

Expanding career and technical education is more important now than ever before with the State of Indiana leading the country in business growth.

VU has the expertise to help Indiana transform CTE education in the k-12 system throughout the state.

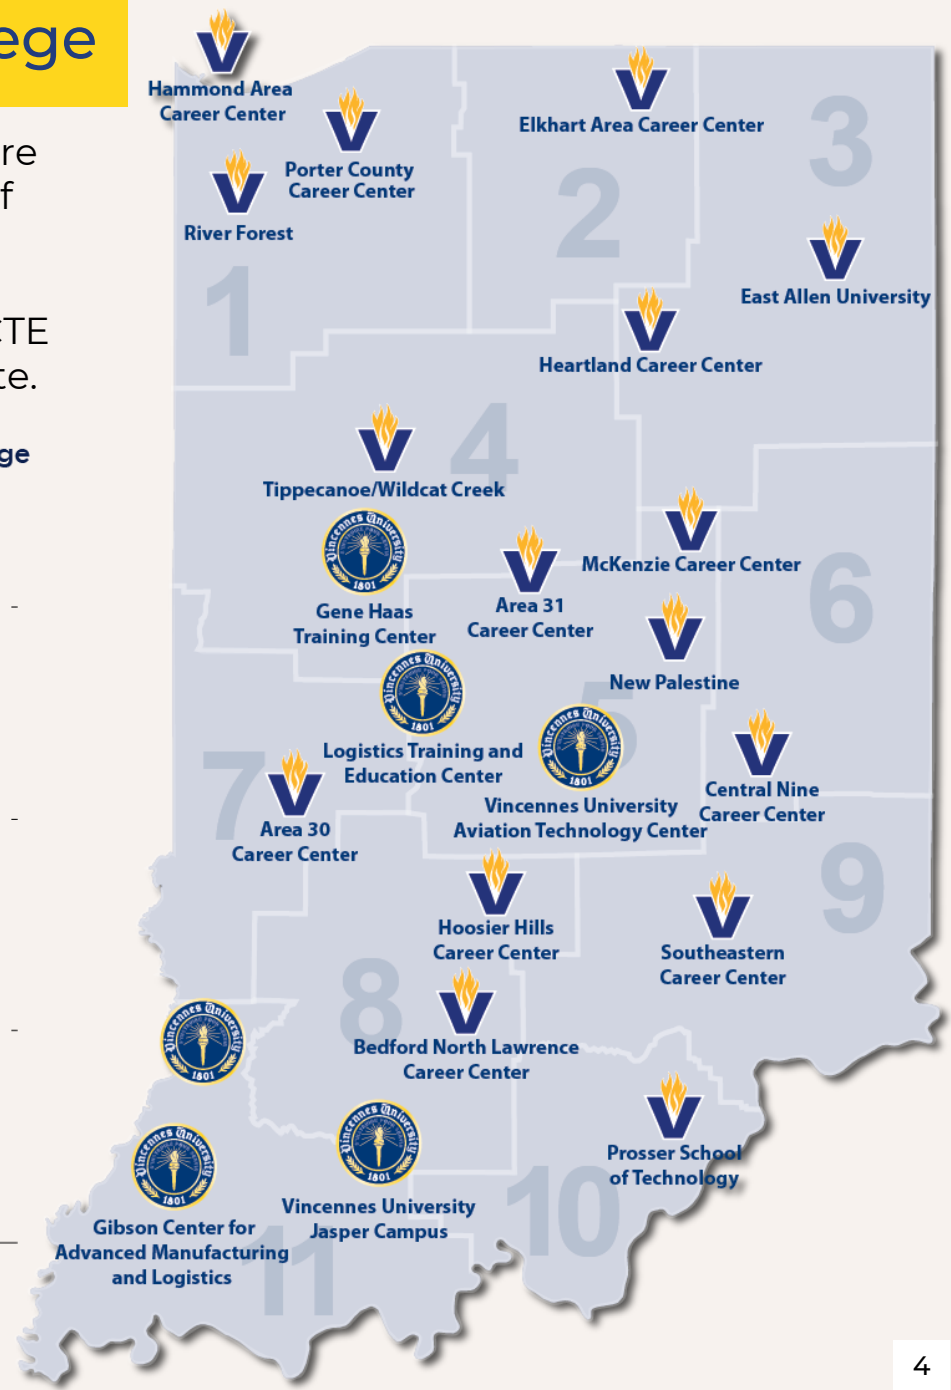

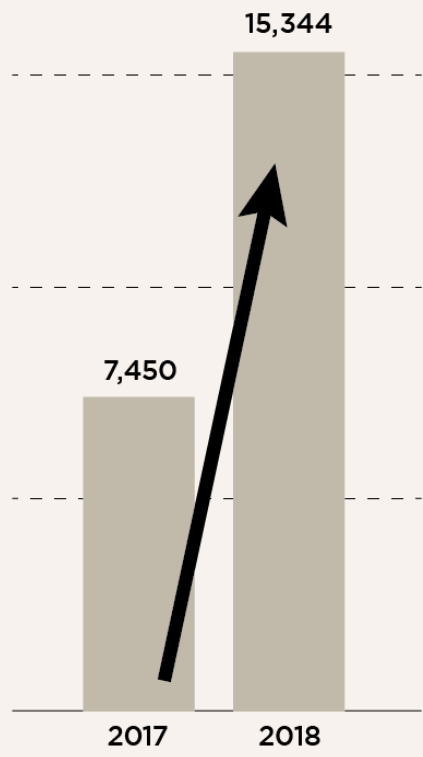

APPROPRIATIONS REQUEST

FY2019 $5 Million
 FY2020 $5 Million

"I have local companies who hire specifically to offer VU scholarships that align with their company employment needs. Students get good jobs right out high school, a good college education paid for by their employers, and a lifetime of career and personal success."
