

MEMORANDUM

TO: Indiana State Board of Education

FROM: Scott Bogan, Director of Higher Education and Ed. Prep. Programs

DATE: May 30, 2018

SUBJECT: American College of Education Proposal – District Level Administrator

Representatives from the American College of Education (ACE) are seeking final approval to offer a new licensure program for aspiring district level superintendents. The program will offer an Educational Specialist degree (Ed.S.) in District-Level Administration, or as a focus of study within a doctorate in Leadership program. Individuals already holding an Ed.S. or higher may complete the required courses at the post-master's level.

It is the conclusion of a majority of the Indiana Educator Preparation Program Review Team (INPREP) and, pursuant to 511 IAC 13-1-1, Sec. 1, (d), the recommendation of the IDOE that the Indiana State Board of Education approve the following:

American College of Education – District Level Administrator Preparation Program

Please note that all approved programs are expected to maintain alignment to Indiana REPA Educator Standards and seek national recognition status via a review by the Specialized Program Association (SPA) specific to the program. The IDOE will continue to monitor the progress of the above program by reviewing all annual reports required of ACE, including candidate performance data submitted to CAEP and the IDOE.
