RE: Appeal by Lake Prairie Elementary School of its 2015-16 Letter Grade
DATE: March 8, 2017

Proposed Finding: Lake Prairie's appeal of its 2015-16 category placement of a "D" grade should be denied.

I. Facts

Lake Prairie Elementary ("Lake Prairie"), part of the Tri-Creek School Corporation, received a letter grade of "D" for the 2015-16 school year. Lake Prairie appealed the "D" grade due to concerns regarding the scoring of individual student assessments and the rescore request process.

II. Argument and Analysis

Scoring of individual student assessments: Lake Prairie contends that its review of student assessment results identified multiple examples of scoring issues regarding 2015-16 assessments. As part of the appeal process, the State Board of Education's ("Board") Senior Director of Accountability and Assessment reviewed the examples provided by Lake Prairie. Upon review, it was concluded that there was insufficient evidence to demonstrate that this appeal should be granted.

Insufficient number of rescore requests: Lake Prairie also contended that there were too few rescore requests submitted by parents. This concern is actually two-fold. First, Lake Prairie contends that the rescore process is time-consuming for parents to complete. Second, Lake Prairie asserts that school administrators and educators should be permitted to request rescoring.

Regarding the first concern, the amount of time required to submit a rescore is not relevant for determining whether or not the school grade accurately reflects the school's performance.

In regards to the second concern, the law during the 2015-16 school year did not permit schools to request a rescore. Only parents could request rescoring. Thus, Lake Prairie's contention that its appeal should be granted due to its inability to request rescoring lacks legal support.

For the forgoing reasons, Lake Prairie's "D" grade should not be altered, and the appeal should be denied.
